

Camping for Cub Scouts

The following new advancement requirements effective June 1, 2015 require some sort of camping or day-long activity. Please bear in mind any camping within a Pack or Webelos setting still need proper training via Youth Protection, Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO) and Trip Permits. Please consult the Guide to Safe Scouting.

Tiger Adventure: Tigers in the Wild:

5: Participate in an Outdoor Pack Meeting or Pack Campout Campfire. Sing a song and act out a skit with your Tiger Den as part of the Program

Wolf Adventure: Call of the Wild

1. While a Wolf Scout, attend a pack or family campout. If your chartered organization does not permit Cub Scout camping, you may substitute a family campout or a daylong outdoor activity with your den or pack.

6. On the campout, participate with your family or den in a campfire show. Prepare a skit or song, and then present it at the campfire for everyone else.

Bear Adventure: Bear Necessities

1. While working on your Bear badge, camp overnight with your pack. If your chartered organization does not permit Cub Scout camping, you may substitute a family campout or a daylong outdoor activity with your den or pack.

5. With your den, plan a cooked lunch or dinner that is nutritious and balanced. Make a shopping list, and help shop for the food. On a campout or at another outdoor event, help cook the meal and help clean up afterward.

Arrow of Light Adventure: Camper

1. With the help of your den leader or family, plan and conduct a campout. If your chartered organization does not permit Cub Scout camping, you may substitute a family campout or a daylong outdoor activity with your den or pack.

2. On arrival at the campout, with your den and den leader or family, determine where to set up your tent. Demonstrate knowledge of what makes a good tent site and what makes a bad one. Set up your tent without help from an adult.

4. On a pack campout, work with your den leader or another adult to plan a campfire program with the other dens. Your campfire program should include an impressive opening, songs, skits, a Cubmaster's minute, and an inspirational closing ceremony.
